About Family Camp

CYC Family Camp is a camp of fellowship, teaching, discussion, great fun, good food and above all getting closer to God through His scriptures. The camp is for all families, couples and individuals that desire a deeper grasp of the historic faith of the Scriptures.

CYC Waiholo puts together this camp believing that the Bible is fully inspired by God and is the final authority on all matters of the Christian faith.

The CYC Council expects campers to attend all meetings, fully support the camp programme and happily observe the posted camp rules. You will also be expected to assist with camp duties

Accommodation at Camp

There is limited accommodation is available to those who attend as a family in our chalets and bunk-rooms - our on-site accommodation is allocated according to the most need.

CYC also has caravan points or you may choose to stay off site in local motels, camping grounds or B&B's.

Activities at Camp

KidzTime

Primary school aged children will be looked after Family Worship during the morning speaking sessions in the downstairs area under the kitchen.

Teenagers

Teenagers will be expected to attend the first speaking session in the morning and evenings. After these sessions there will be a teenage program for them to attend with parental permission.

Family Activities

Each afternoon at camp there will be organised activities for families - these may include geocaching, paint-ball, adventure-based activities, treasure hunts, family tabloid sports competition.

Jay Behan

Jay Behan is the senior minister at St. Stephen's Shirley in Christchurch. He is married to Jaimee and they have three children Jesse (15), Molly (11) and Laura (7). As well as loving telling people the good news about Jesus he enjoys watching sport of all kind (especially Rugby League), having good meals with great people, watching quality TV shows, telling bad jokes and music. Jay will be speaking from the middle chapters of Genesis looking at "Lessons from the Past - encouragement from Jacob the deceiver"

David Bayne

David was born in Ashburton and grew up on a farm nearby. He is married to Lynda and they have seven adult children and two grand-children. He has studied at Westminster Theological Seminary in Philadelphia and has served as a minister in the RCNZ for a number of years before being involved in the process of establishing GPNZA. He is currently Stated Clerk for them and serves as minister of the Ashburton / Fairlie congregations. David's topic is "Christianity came to New Zealand - the arrival and establishment of the Gospel in New Zealand's formative years".

Stuart Johnson

Stuart lives in Dunedin with his wife Gail. They have three daughters, one at university and two at school. Stuart is the Associate-Principal of Grace Theological College and preaches regularly at his home church (Grace Bible Church) and elsewhere. He thinks Family Camp is great and that you should come! Stuart plans to speak on the topic "Finding Jesus in unexpected places", a study of some 'big' moments in the lives of David and Daniel and how they bring us afresh to Christ and the gospel.
